Loves First Flight

Just as a bird takes it's first flight
from the nest out into the infinite spaces,
we too, come to that inevitable day...
and a force inherent in us all,
lifts us up and for the first time we soar
with an open heart, for all to see.

And when we've caught our breath,
we are overcome with loves all consuming power-
that exhilarating feeling of being.
Anxious for the dawn... to fly into a new day.

Heartstrings

Do you play a musical instrument?

Oh, yes!

Which one?

The Heart.

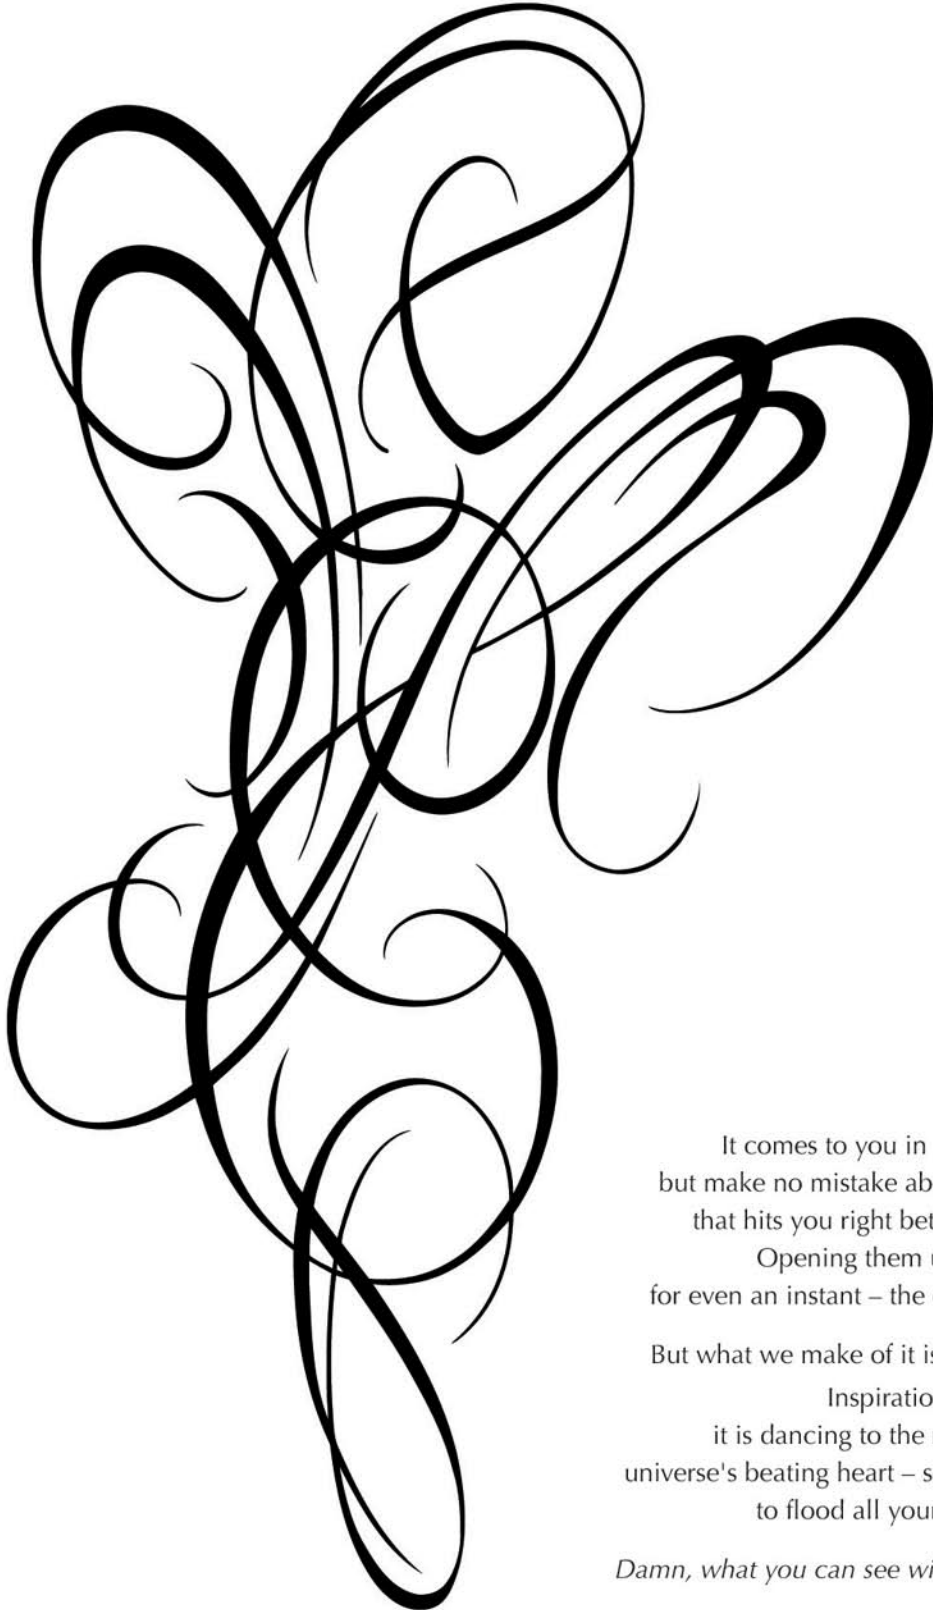

Really?... You play the Heart!

Everybody plays it. It's not that hard,
but at times it's not that easy.
The beauty is it's in your hands all the time.
After a while, it can literally play by itself.

So it's truly up to you,
how lovely a melody you wish to play
to those around you lucky enough to hear.
One tip... be gentle, and try not to break any strings.

Inspiration

It comes to you in many forms,
but make no mistake about it – it's a force
that hits you right between the eyes.

Opening them up to see,
for even an instant – the champion you are.

But what we make of it is all the difference.

Inspiration...

it is dancing to the rhythm of the universe's beating heart – sending waves of love to flood all your senses...

Damn, what you can see with a little inspiration.

Serenity

In your turbulent world-
there is a place where you'll find yourself's floating in a space so peaceful

And you'll feel your soul tickled
by a current of energy that transforms all the noise into a sweet lullaby.
